BOOK A TOUR

Welcome to all.

We know you'll feel the power and peace of Blessing Hill when you arrive on our family-owned property. It's an incredibly special, nature-inspired place that was built out of a whole lot of hardship, strength, hope, faith, and love. Please email me, Kelli Shane (Venue Manager), at info@blessinghillvenue.com to schedule a tour.

Because Blessing Hill is a private property, we have a few requests of visitors, out of respect for our neighbors. Bikers on winding roads, neighbors on afternoon walks, and wildlife crossing on Cavitt Stallman Road are all regular occurrences. Please keep your eyes on the road, drive safely, and follow speed limits, including on our private 1,000 foot driveway (10mph) — which we share with our neighbors. Slow down, enjoy the view, and say “hello” to the sheep and goats next door.
